

HITLER APPEALS TO ENGLISH "REASON"

Farley To Retire As Democratic Chief Aug. 17

PLEDGES FULL COOPERATION IN CAMPAIGN

Subcommittee To Confer with President on Choice of New Chairman.

By The Associated Press
CHICAGO, July 19.—James A. Farley announced today he would resign as chairman of the Democratic national committee on Aug. 17, except an "attractive" private business offer, presumably as of the New York Yankees baseball club.

A new chairman will be selected after a conference with President Roosevelt Aug. 1 by a committee of five headed by Edward J. Flynn, Democratic representative of the Bronx.

Farley told newspapermen after a executive meeting of the national committee today at which he was unanimously reelected chairman to serve only until Aug. 17 that he would discuss his resignation with the cabinet—he is the postmaster general—with the President and that it would be up to Mr. Roosevelt to make that arrangement.

Administrative sources have said that President Roosevelt favors Edward G. Walker of New York, former director of the old national defense agency council, as Farley's successor. Some of Walker's close friends have predicted he will accept the job.

In a formal statement given to reporters "Genial Jim" pledged his "full support" to the Roosevelt-Wallace ticket.

"Eight years ago in this city," it said, "I was elected chairman of the Democratic national committee. In the intervening years, I have had the happiest associations with Democrats all over the country and my debt to the party is never to be repaid."

Story on President Roosevelt's speech accepting nomination appears on Page 17.

2 Die Here Following Wyandot County Crash

Philadelphia and LaGrange, Ill., Men Fatally Hurt in Head-on Collision; Third Man, in Critical Condition, Still Unconscious.

Two men injured in a head-on collision eight miles west of Upper Sandusky on Route 30-N about 5:45 p.m. yesterday later died in City hospital here and a third victim is a critical condition at the hospital.

The dead are:

John E. Hayes, about 30, of LaGrange, Ill., an investment broker, driver of one of the cars.

Alfred J. Kutchera, about 55, Philadelphia, Pa., owner of the other auto involved.

The injured man is William Kutchera, about 25, also of Philadelphia, a son of Alfred Kutchera.

Mr. Hayes died at City hospital about 8 o'clock last night and Alfred Kutchera succumbed at 3:30 o'clock this morning without regaining consciousness.

State highway patrolmen investigating the accident said they were told the Kutchera was eastbound and the Hayes auto west-bound. The patrolmen were told the driver of the Kutchera car attempted to pass another automobile, apparently saw the Hayes car approaching and then cut back into his own lane of traffic.

Car Out of Control

On being cut back onto the south side of the highway, the Kutchera car struck the berm at the side of the road, apparently got out of control, and then careened across the highway into the path of the Hayes car, the patrol reported.

After the impact, both cars skidded to the south side of the road and came to a stop on the berm between 30 and 40 feet from the point where they collided.

It had not been definitely determined today whether the father or the son was driving the Kutchera car because officials were unable to talk to the father before he died and the son has not regained consciousness. However, patrolmen expressed the view that the car was driven by the father.

Hurled from Cars

All three men were hurled from their cars, falling to the ground 10 to 20 feet from the vehicles.

Passing motorists summoned two Bringman & Sons ambulances from Upper Sandusky and because of overcrowded conditions at Bucyrus hospital the men were brought here.

Mr. Hayes was conscious several minutes before he died but was unable to give an account of the accident, attendants reported.

The physician attending the trio said Mr. Hayes had compound fractures of both arms and both legs, a fractured skull and possible internal injuries and that Alfred Kutchera suffered a skull fracture, possible internal injuries and numerous lacerations. William Kutchera has a skull fracture, a broken right leg and possible internal injuries, the physician reported.

The cars were demolished although neither overturned, the patrol reported. Both were nearly new.

Mr. Hayes' body was removed from the hospital to the Schaffner-Denzer funeral home last night and today was sent by rail to LaGrange upon the family's request.

Difficulty in identifying William Kutchera resulted in a mix-up at the hospital last night and led to early reports that he was a Cleveland resident of another name.

Meanwhile, British military men, looking beyond these persistent raids and the approaching battle for Britain, are preparing for "the day" when they say their troops will launch a counter-offensive against Germany.

New Armed for Defense

The British army insists it has enough guns and munitions to defend its island fortress, but military men emphasized the necessity for vast stores of war materials if Britain is to be the sally port for an offensive which "will win the war."

For this blow, British and neutral military men declare, the army must be supported not only by the output of Britain's own factories and arsenals but by every gun, bullet, shell, tank and plane that can be bought from the United States.

"At present," one officer said, "we are confident we have enough to hold Britain if need be."

COUNTY ROAD CONTRACT LET

Annual Surface Treatment Job Awarded to Tiffin Man.

The county commissioners today awarded a contract for the annual surface treatment program for county roads to Louis Dehner, Inc., of Tiffin on his bid of $31,067.65.

Sections of eight roads will receive their first treatment at a cost of $14,976.28, the total length being 17.48 miles.

The major part of the program will be in the retreatment of the surfaces of sections of 21 other roads over a total length of 42.52 miles. Mr. Dehner's bid on this part of the work was $16,091.37.

To Compare Materials

The commissioners plan to have the new treatment done with tar, but split up the retreatment work among tar, petroleum asphalt and lake asphalt. Commissioner J. O. Weiss said this will give the commissioners an opportunity to compare the different materials.

The splitting up of the program among various materials accounts for the fact that the bids listed above for Mr. Dehner do not correspond exactly with those listed later in this story. The original bids were made on the basis of doing the entire program in a single type of material.

Last year all the treatment was with petroleum asphalt, a comparatively new material produced at refineries. Most of the retreatment this year also is with petroleum asphalt.

Only three bids were submitted on the surface treatment program. Each bidder submitted estimates for the job with tar, with lake asphalt and with petroleum asphalt. The following list gives the bids for the total job, new treatment and retreatment.

The estimates of County Engineer Carl H. Tozzer for the work were: with tar $44,856.81; with lake asphalt $44,856.81; with petroleum asphalt $38,036.71.

List of Bids

The complete list of bids follows:

C. E. Edgington & Sons of Findlay — $34,119.42 using tar; $38,917.56 using lake asphalt (low bid for lake asphalt); $28,268.37 using petroleum asphalt.

Louis Dehner, Inc., of Tiffin — $33,682.02 using tar (low bid for tar); $38,956.45 using lake asphalt; $28,478.16 using petroleum asphalt (low bid for petroleum asphalt).

M. W. Martin of Upper Sandusky — $38,083.32 using tar; $38,956.54 using lake asphalt; $29,669.03 using petroleum asphalt.

The commissioners and County Engineer Carl H. Tozzer arranged the bidding blanks so that the bidders could submit prices on three types of material. The banks also furnished a breakdown of the various bids, which showed considerable variation in unit prices.

Range of Bids

For example, Engineer Tozzer, following the usual practice of making rather liberal estimates of costs, estimated the price of RT-2 a prime coat tar material, at 13 cents a pound.

Woman Injured in Fall While Picking Cherries

Miss Millie Swank, 68, of 727 East Church street is in serious condition at City hospital following a fall from a ladder on which she was standing to pick cherries. Attendants reported she is suffering a possible skull fracture.

The accident occurred Wednesday morning while Miss Swank was picking cherries at the home of Mrs. James Wark with whom she lives. Mrs. Wark said Miss Swank apparently lost her balance and fell from the top of a stepladder to the ground 10 feet below.

She was treated at the Wark home until last night when her condition became serious.

AIR FIGHTERS BATTLE OVER DOVER STRAITS

Fierce Contest Develops as Swarm of Nazi Raiders Attack British Destroyer.

Two important events launching fall political campaign activities in Marion county were held here yesterday by Republican party supporters. One was a luncheon meeting of the Marion County Organization of Republican Women at the party headquarters on East Center street and the other was the annual steak fry held at the McNamara farm south of Marion last night under the sponsorship of the Marion County Young Republicans club.

Giving the addresses at both affairs, Congressman Frederick C. Smith voiced enthusiasm over the choice of Wendell L. Willkie as the party's presidential nominee and predicted success for the party in the fall election both in the national and state contests.

Congressman Smith, who attended the Republican national convention at Philadelphia, drew a contrast between that meeting and the Democratic national convention at Chicago in which Franklin D. Roosevelt was re-nominated.

The attack was the most spectacular of a series of bombing raids this morning on northeast and northwest England, southwest Scotland and on a trawler only 17 miles off the southeast coast of Ireland as the Germans renewed their steady battering tactics against this island fortress.

One Bomber Sunk

Six enemy planes swooped low out of the sun and dropped a salvo of 30 bombs near a southeast town in the face of terrific barrage and a fierce chase by fighters. "Considerable damage" was done, a fire was started, and one of the bombers was sunk in the sea.

Several areas in southwest Scotland were bombed. These attacks followed a bombing of a city in southeast Scotland last night in which a 16-family apartment house was struck.

The air ministry reported this morning that one of the bombers participating in this attack was shot down into the sea. Casualties were reported "very light," however.

Eight bombs were dropped in the Scottish raid this morning and workers sought a number of persons believed buried in debris. There were at least two casualties.

Enemy planes also were reported over Wales this afternoon.

One German was shot down when British planes intervened yesterday in another attack by four enemy aircraft on trawlers, the air ministry said.

Meanwhile, British military men, looking beyond these persistent raids and the approaching battle for Britain, are preparing for "the day" when they say their troops will launch a counter-offensive against Germany.

"It is a question of Wendell L. Willkie and liberty or Franklin D. Roosevelt and dictatorship," he asserted.

Possibly anticipating the bursting of the invasion storm tonight, the Berlin press today warned Britain anew against the use of civilian "snipers" to combat Nazi troops.

The German army, it was said, is prepared to "impose sharply the inhuman war usage (summary executions)" of non-uniformed Britons shooting at Nazi soldiers.

British artillery officers disclosed meanwhile that Britain's airfield had been converted into "death traps" for any German transport planes trying to land troops on English soil.

While British defenders rushed preparations to greet any trans-channel invasion, Hitler's high command reported new aerial attacks on British shipping and military barracks.

Great Success Claimed

Claiming "great success," the Nazi communiqué asserted the German air force had bombed and sunk a submarine and four merchant ships totaling 12,000 to 14,000 tons, with 12 other merchant ships badly damaged.

A German U-boat sank 31,000 tons of shipping, the communiqué said, while another undersea raider "succeeded in shooting" a

YOUTH HUNTS BEE TREES, MAKES A SWEET PROFIT

Sells Bees, Puts Bees in Hives Is unusual Hobby

By The Associated Press
APPMATTOX, Va.—Nineteen-year-old Haylijah Babcock Jr. is nicknamed "Bee" because he has followed a bee line to more than 300 honey-filled trees in 10 years.

The Columbia, S. C. youth who spends his summers here first tried his luck at finding bee trees when he was nine. It was plenty sweet—a hive in the second tree he examined.

His favorite method of locating a tree is to wade down a stream, watch bees sucking water from wet sand, and follow them. Sometimes he puts honey on flowers and watches the line of bees. July is the best month to find the trees he believes. He has located as many as five in a day, but one to three is average. He cuts the tree down and ships the honey to South Carolina for sale. The bees are placed in hives.

"Stings" Lots of them, but "Bee" has become immune to swelling.

He can't follow the bees in winter, so he pursues a hobby by studying 30,000 to 60,000 bees he keeps in a glass beehive.

Hillman's First Move in Defense Post May Head C.I.O., A.F.L. Toward Peace

By MORGAN BEATTY
Associated Press Feature Writer

WASHINGTON — Blithes as a schoolboy on the way to the old salaried role of labor's Sidney Hillman sets out to do the impossible again as a member of the national defense commission.

It's time his job is to get America's idle men and idle plants together and when that's done to fill the gaps still left with youths newly trained and disciplined for the national defense job ahead. And if he's not swamped along the way he's expected to help settle or prevent strikes.

That's a big order. But Hillman's as confident as he was that day in 1910 when he led and won the seemingly hopeless strike in Chicago's open shop clothing industry.

He's as confident as he was in 1914 when he led his little band of 105 delegates out of the American Federation of Labor formed the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America. As urban as that day in 1932 when he accepted an AFL job in labor to march the Amalgamated now grown strong and powerful back into the fold.

And as unconcerned as he was more recently when AFL kicked him out again.

European Accent

"Don't you feel out of your element in this white marble Federal Reserve building?" I ask. He laughs.

"I trust Mr. Julius Rosenwald on me told me the Amalgamated workers in Chicago were as 'neat as his club. We have two banks you know."

Sidney Hillman's accent is definitely old world. His English is exact grammar fair. He was born in Lithuania.

His clothes aren't off. He's dressed like a business man, may be a bit on the smart side. Simple cool pastel blue, white vest and shoes. With his gold rimmed glasses neatly parted hair, you might mistake him for a Rotary club president. You'd think him not a day over 40. The record shows he's 52.

He's Fought Communism

"How do you propose to train the nation's youth?" is my next

The man's working with a labor movement. Above house is divided against itself.

He's dealing too with Army and Navy men whose everyday work leaves them indifferent to labor movements, and many of whom fear—off the record—that union labor will insist on limiting apprenticeships in key industries to protect high wage scales national defense or no national defense.

Also watching Hillman's step and trying to out him in favor of a military youth administrator is Georgia Congressman E. E. Cox and a mix of other lawmakers. They're Sidney Hillman and Fifth Columnist in the same breath, even though they don't actually share his a communal F. T. U. Cox's record as fighting communism, barring him from leadership in the Amalgamated. Ben Gilman reneged and in his "Confession" Hillman two-faced opportunist.

He's Labor Peace

Sonsing lab's own struggle as his No. 1 hurdle. Hillman has already struck it—stirred for peace.

I have asked a joint committee of C.I.O., A.F.L. and the railroad brotherhoods to advise me. He says they will help with the AP says.

Now—Even More Marion Motorists Can "Be Sure with Pure"

Man: Say, Bill, what's the idea back of the two new Pure Oil Stations here in Marion?

Pure Oil Dealer: Well Mister B., it's a case of mutual admiration. Pure Oil likes Marion and you Folks here have shown you like Pure Oil.

TWO NEW PURE OIL STATIONS FOR A GREATER MARION—OPENING JULY 20

We believe in Marion. We have faith in its future. In fact, we think it's a town that's really "going places." That's why we're opening two new stations: one at East Center and Jefferson streets and one at Davids street and Woodrow avenue, Oakland Heights.

Conditions in Marion speak well for the future of the city. A new industry—one of the largest in its field—is moving to Marion. Other main industries are running to capacity, some are building new plants. This all adds up to a spirit of progress and enterprise.

Pure Oil is proud to be a part of the business life of Marion. We are opening two new modern stations here on July 20 so that we can serve the driving needs of more Marion people. These two new stations, together with the three other Pure Oil Lubridome Stations already located in Marion are equipped and organized to give you real "value received" with every dollar you spend on your car.

When you stop at the big blue-and-white Pure Oil sign you get top-rank petroleum products at a fair price. You also "Cooking for 2 in the summer, is no snap!"

That's what a young married woman said the other day as she finished her shopping trip at one of our local markets.

If you and your husband want a pleasant change of foods if you get a little tired of preparing small dinners why not do this once or twice a week.

Check the restaurants who run their announcements in this paper. Then select the one that fits your idea of modest prices, and enjoy a meal out. Some of them have music, some entertainment, while others are as quiet as a country road. Step out once or twice a week—get away from the kitchen.

CLEVELAND POLICE STUDY AUTO DEATHS

Drivers in Fatal Accidents, Where Possible, Examined.

By the Associated Press
CLEVELAND July 19—Motorists involved in serious traffic accidents here need a good set of reflexes and some ready answers to escape suspension of their driving rights.

Dear drivers face a new set of questions in addition to those concerning accident details—a set to determine their intelligence quotient. Usually they may run into knee tapping to test reflexes and other examination by psychiatrists to detect mental quirks.

Impressed by psychiatric findings in traffic cases, a Detroit racing Traffic Commissioner Martin L. Blecke has started quizzing accident drivers in the belief that emotion, a sense of irresponsibility may be factors in Cleveland's rising traffic trial.

Blecke reports:

"Our new practice of bringing before us the drivers involved in fatal accidents—if the drivers survive—has been a revelation to us. We've been talking to all of them lately whether the driver was responsible for the accident or not and have thus far discovered no one whom you would call responsible citizen has been hit at the wheel. Most of the people we've brought in—and mind you many of them hit pedestrians who were at fault—are what we call young punks."

Sixty-seven traffic deaths to date this year compared with 52 at this time a year ago prompted the subjecting of accident drivers to informal intelligence tests.

Sixty-eight of this year's victims were pedestrians. Blecke reported and all but two of these were intoxicated when struck in crossing street intersections.

NO NEW CLUES FOUND IN DRUG STORE HOLDUP

No new clues other than those uncovered during the early in investigation have been found in a study of the robbery yesterday noon of Chrispin's drug store at 20 East Center street by a trio of armed men. Spoons and glasses, used by the robber gang when they consumed soft drinks and ice cream before committing the holdup were examined for finger prints. Officers were able to find only smudge prints, none of which are clear enough for close examination or comparison, it was reported.

A report of the holdup over the police radio system broadcast within a few minutes after the crime failed to bring any trace of the robbers or bindit here. Reports from persons in the neighborhood however indicated that the bandit crew sped eastward on East Center street after leaving the scene of the crime. Authorities are continuing the search for the bandit crew.

The type of shelter recommended by Dr. Johnson is of frame construction with a floor of one by four inch 11 gauge galvanized and electrically sealed wire two feet above the ground and a galvanized sheet iron coated with aluminum paint to reflect some of the sun's heat. A single thickness of unbleached cheesecloth 28 by 44 by 11 inch weave fastened to the studdings with wood lathes is all that is necessary to keep out the flies. An enclosure of chain wire inside the studdings keeps the turkeys from pecking holes in the cloth.

NEW TYPE COLLEGE EXAM
By International News Service
PROVIDENCE, R. I.—It's finally happened. Providence college English Professor Daniel J. O'Neill conducted his final examination by giving would-be graduates the answers to 20 questions and requiring them to supply the correct questions. Only three per cent of the class failed.

THE NEIGHBORS' KIDS'
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
PRAIRIE CITY, ILL.—This peaceful western Illinois village had to break precedent and hire a policeman to use the town brass band of 12 boys to play for youngsters, many of them from neighboring towns. The city's population is 531.

Lodge Members Clear Up Police "Goat Mystery"

Marion police who early yesterday thought they had someone's goat, found out differently later in the day.

The animal found tied to a fence post at the rear of city prison, was thought to have been put there by members of the night force who then neglected to make a report of where and when it was found.

Mrs. Goat, however, turned out to be part of the stage for fraternal activities Wednesday night in Eagles quarters. She was given new initials as known goat ride by the Lodge members who trailed in a reception campaign.

The goat situation was ended out by Gene W. W. W. Eagle's campaign. He borrowed the animal from his master and presented it to the Lodge captain of the local during ceremonies the close of the meeting.

BURGLARS GET $18
UPPER SANDUSKY, July 19—A princely $18 was taken last night in a burglary at the Harman Service station near the uptown business district here. Police said entrance apparently was gained through an unlocked window at the rear of the station. The money had been hid in the office which was ransacked.

The price generally quoted by Morrow county elevators was 68 cents for No. 2 wheat and 69 cents for No. 1. Last year the first wheat brought in brought only 64 cents for No. 1 and 63 cents for No. 2.

Practically all Morrow county wheat is now cut or ready for combining.

SEAL BECOMES MASCOT OF COAST GUARD STATION

By International News Service
SAN FRANCISCO, Calif.—
Willy, Willy the Bolinas coast guard station across San Fran cisco bay has a mascot. He's Oscar a baby spotted hair seal.

Seals a wally are rare in this area—the aquatic mammals often termed seals which disport along the ocean front wally are sea lions but Oscar is the real thing.
He was found flopping helplessly along the beach by a patrolling coast guardman.

He was cared for on the beach

for several days, on the theory that his lost strayed or stolen mother would return but she didn't. So the foot-and-a-half long infant has been domiciled in a tiny lagoon near the coast guard station where he is busily learning to swim aided by a buoying rope thoughtfully installed about his midriff by his caretakers.

END OF CHURCH AGE NEAR, PASTOR SAYS

Bible Conference Speaker
Cites Prophecy Fulfillment.

Second of a series of sermons
by Rev. C. A. Blackmore, Erie, Pa. evangelist, was given yester day during the annual conference of the Young People's Fellowship club of Central Ohio, which con tinues through July 26 at the Chautauqua pavilion.

He conducted a Bible study of Daniel 2:32-33 during yesterday's afternoon session, giving an interpre tation of Nebuchadnezzar's dream of the great image. God, he said, is a revealer of secrets and His students are constantly watching
His program, knowing when it will be over.

His sermon at the evening services was on the subject "Can
This Be The End of The Church
Age?" He pointed to false re ligions, nations rising against each other, famine, pestilence, faith lessness, treachery and an ebb in church membership as signs of the approach of the close of the current age. Since the end of the first World war these things have come to pass and the end of the church age is near, he told his audience.

Special music was presented by Rev. Blackmore and his son Carl.
Their vocal and instrumental numbers were accompanied by Robert Dillinger pianist.

The meetings to be held daily through next Friday are being held at 2:15 p. m. and 7:45 p. m., with music classes under the direc tion of Carl Blackmore each day at 6:45 p. m.

MARION CCC CAMP PART OF EXPANSION

Total of 12,600 Youths Now in Ohio Units.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, July 19—Ex pansion of the Ohio civilian con servation corps program from 25 to 28 camps was announced by Director James J. McEntee today with the observation that better training opportunities are now available in the CCC than at any previous time during the seven years it has been in operation.

McEntee said creation of sum mer units in Richland, Marion and Lawrence counties would bring the state's CCC enrollment to 12,600 youths and 1,404 war veterans with 8,404 assigned to out-of-state camps.

The 5,600 remaining in Ohio are employed 3,400 on erosion con trol projects 1,400 in forestry and 800 in metropolitan areas.
The new camps will operate
through July, August and Sep tember.

Lt. Philip C. Musgrave, of ficer in charge of the CCC
camp east of Marion said today that he has received no informa tion from Washington to con firm news reports that the camp here will be discontinued
during the winter months.

Engineers Say American Skyscrapers Would Make Safe Air Raid Shelters

NEW YORK, July 19.—The idea of an air raid is with American skyscrapers, and evidence to come from building authorities in New York City, it is a type of building in Europe that is not safe. The steel cage structure of skyscrapers is not even seriously damaged.

Rotterdam Example

In Rotterdam News and Opinion says, damage to ordinary five-story business buildings was terrific but singularly a 12-story new steel frame apartment building escaped.

Engineers explained this. The old type of building which includes all Europe's historic structures is known as the monolith. This means that the walls support the entire weight of roof floors and all the contents thereof.

It means also in terms of bombing that a hit which damages a wall may collapse the whole structure.

The articulated American skyscraper is an endless steel skele- ton that is, every part of the frame is united by steel rivets or by welding to every adjoining part. This results in what engineers call distribution of load.

For example the masons covering that the walls are supported separately floor by floor on the steel frame. Bomb demolition of a lower wall will not necessarily bring down upper sec-

President Cites Foreign Events As Reason for Accepting Nomination

The Associated Press
DETROIT July 19—President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in a radio address in which he accepted Democratic nomination for a third term, spoke of foreign policy as the reason for his decision to run. He asserted he had a private life of his own to begin next week, the conclusion of his

"These plans, like so many other plans, he said, had been made in a world which now seems as distant as another planet." "Today all private plans at private lives have been repealed by an over-riding public danger." "In the face of that public danger all those who can be of service to the public have no choice but to offer themselves for service in those capacities for which they may be fitted."

Can't Turn Down Call

"Those are the reasons why I have had to admit to myself and now to state to you, that my conscience will not let me turn my back to a call to serve."

He asserted, however, that the right to make that call resides with the people through the American method of a free election, and that only the people themselves could draft a president.

If such a draft should be made upon me I say in the utmost simplicity that the Chief Executive asserted, I will, with God's help, continue to serve with the best of my ability and with the fullness of my strength.

Mr. Roosevelt said he was submitting to the judgment of his countrymen all he had done to maintain the nation's peace and to prepare it morally and physically for whatever contingencies might lie in store for it.

We face one of the great choices of history," he said. "It is not alone a choice of government by the people versus dictatorship.

"It is not alone a choice between moving forward or falling back."

Explains Silence

Explaining the reason why he had kept silent on the third term issue he said it became evident that a public statement renouncing a third term would be unwise from the point of view of sheer public interest.

It was his duty, he said, as President, with the aid of Congress to preserve American neutrality, shape the defense program to meet rapid changes, keep domestic affairs adjusted to shifting world conditions and to sustain the good-neighbor policy.

It was his obvious duty also to maintain the utmost influence of the nation in an effort to prevent the spread of war.

As the pace of foreign events moved swiftly he asserted every day that passed called for postponement of personal plans and partisan debate until the latest possible moment.

Indians' Five Straight Defeats Stir Up Talk of Club's Annual Slump

Cleveland Loses to Yankees, 9 to 6;
Detroit Takes Over Lead.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, July 19.—The season of fears and forebodings is at hand for Cleveland Indians fans.

Eyeing the Tribe's five straight losses, the Cleveland camp has crossed its fingers today and apprehensively queried: "Can this be it?"

They referred to the Indians' perennial slump. About this time of year, for more seasons than the club likes to recall, there has been in a decline that has knocked Cleveland out of the pennant race. Usually they have faltered or easterners have.

Officials Not Shaky

But while the fans had quaked, the club officials have not, and may.

"I think our three top pitchers, Bob Feller, A. Miller and Al Smith are, naturally, not in a prolonged slump and I look for a tight race," said the leading team punched at the end of the year," said Vice President C. C. Spahr of Cleveland.

President Al A. Bradley announced on a fan's radio show that a 9 to 6 drubbing from the Yankees yesterday remained.

"Naturally, I hate to see us losing streak but I have no intention of talking to the players about it. So far as I'm concerned we're set for the rest of the season."

Smith was nominated to start for the Tribe in the top of their New York stand. Artie Letty Gomez got the nod for the Yanks.

It was one of Cleveland's top bracket pitchers — Miller — who was charged with yesterday's defeat which dropped the club into second place again, a half-game behind Detroit and ahead of Boston by the same margin.

Use Three Hurters

The Yanks reached Miller and his successors, Hale Andrews and Harry Eisenstat, for 10 hits including three home runs.

The Tribe got all eight of its runs off Spud Chandler when it was replaced in the eighth by Bump Hadley.

The American League still is rolling over like a pot of hot porridge and there doesn't seem to be anything anyone can do about it.

As the Indians stumbled into their fifth consecutive defeat yesterday, both the Boston Red Sox and Detroit Tigers had a chance to swoop into the lead but when they finished battling each other at the end of 11 wild innings it was Detroit that was on top 10-8.

Had Everything

This was a game that had everything including a triple play.

The Yankees sewed up their victory in the first two innings. Joe DiMaggio extended his hitting streak to 13 consecutive games by hitting his 10th home run in the seventh inning.

Four Churches Honor Marion Family Soon To Enter China Mission Field

300 Attend Farewell for Rev. and Mrs. Overmyer and Children; Gifts Presented.

Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Overmyer, on July 30 or 31 and to sail from the west coast in September for China. Rev. Overmyer is entering the foreign mission field for the Evangelical church.

Churches taking part in the farewell party last night were the Oakland, Calvary and Oakwood, and Salem church near Marion.

Gifts Presented

Several farewell gifts and money were presented, among them a portable organ which was purchased with proceeds of a special offering taken last night.

In the absence of Mrs. C. R. Beersweer of Marion, state president of the missionary society, Rev. P. E. Smoke of Calvary church presided. The church was attractively decorated for the party with garden flowers. Music was furnished by an orchestra representing all four churches and directed by Homer Huffman. The group accompanied hymn singing and played special selections and the offering.

Prayer and scripture were offered by Rev. Oscar V. Latta of Marion, field secretary for the Ohio Conference Missionary Society.

A corsage and rose buds were presented to Mrs. Overmyer and the baby girl, Mary Beth, and rose buds to Rev. Overmyer and the son, Danny Lee.

Rev. and Mrs. Overmyer were also presented life membership certificates from the Oakland Missionary society by Mrs. George Leedom, president.

Program Features

A reading was presented by Elizabeth Jeffries of the Greenwood church and a trio from the Oakwood church sang.

Among distinguished visitors were two district superintendents, R. A. Sain of Columbus and C. L. Allen of Fremont. Both spoke briefly. Rev. H. V. Summers of Canton, superintendent of the eastern district, sent his regrets and best wishes.

Rev. H. C. Ahrens, representing the Marion County Ministerial association, also gave a short talk. Mr. and Mrs. Overmyer responded with talks, after which the special offering was taken. They were presented with the registration book signed by the guests last night and also with a travel book.

Benediction was pronounced by Rev. J. Q. Smoke of Salem church. Refreshments were served on the church lawn by Mrs. Charles Feaver and her committee.
